Was that the final stroke of nine?
The moon creates violet hours
Desire is the will inside
This approval I feel for you

Well a voice within me sings
This concert is here for you
We do a duet very slow
A seam out of the finest thread

A break, God rules, this pair dances through the night
Amen, again, nothing, nothing, just quiet, so quiet

It is love I give to you
I tell you that much is true
Be wilder, yes, be wilder oh
That's what I do all night

Was that the final stroke of mine?
Demon creates violet hour
This Irish devil inside
Disapproval I feel for you

Well a voice within me sings
Disconcert is here for you
Why do I do it? Where is love?
I seem out of the tiniest thread

I break good rule, despair dances
through the night
I mean, I gain nothing, nothing, quite so, quite

It is love I give to you
I tell you that much is true
Bewilder, yes, bewilder oh
That's what I do all night
