There was a time when our harps would sing
There was a time when our swords would clink
Now battlegrounds and songs of trust
Have muted, and reduced to dust
No, you were never my enemy
Except in the sense that you were like me
The quest for love took all my strength
The enemy was myself
It takes a year to remember a year
It takes a girl to remember a girl
But patience and will break the shell of souvenir
Makes us change
I have changed
What I like about you
What do I like about you?
We had a common ground

Solid, safe and sound
That's what I like about you
That's what I like about you
That's what I love about you
You just walked in through my door
A gaze through the window
At the world outside
The glass could be smashed
But could I take it if it rained inside?
That's what I like about you
That's what I like about you
We had a common ground
Solid, safe and sound
That's what I like about you
That's what I like about you
That's what I love about you
You just walked in through my door
