Face your horizon
And watch it all dissolve
Change your tomorrow
And let your now evolve
Don't feed the demons
You have buried in your past
Just know your future freedom
Is coming down so fast
Lilith

All mistakes forgiven
All wrongs turned into rights
Free from all the darkness
That cluttered up your mind
Just teach yourself to listen
To the promises you make
And know that if you keep them
Your love don't fade away
Lilith

Sweep yesterdays shadows
Like dark clouds from your sight
Clear away the tombstones
You've drawn inside your eyes
Gone but not forgotten
You can run, but you can't hide
Release yourself from your longing
And walk into the light
Lilith
