Back when I was riseing up
All the suckers used to play Acting like they all that
And no one knew the way To Ganon's castle, Level nine Link had the power, I had the mind
I held the magic sword way up high I knew I could win I didn't have to try The NES Advantage was on my side
I take evil for a ride
I smoke the tactites like they was hooch
Cause soon I know I'd have zelda's cootch I'd walk to meet The motherfuckin gannon He'd dissappear like a ball from a cannon
I raise my voice and I shout out loud
I got the triforce and I am proud I finally hit him with the silver arrow
And you know I leave the rock Even though the road to good is narrow Zelda's on my jock Cause my balls is big, to be this brave Princess zelda is the one I saved
Now I'm playing with power
The nineteen eighty's will never go sour

Yeah, who would have thunk it, it must have been a drunken someone who could pump it with a beat so funky hell yeah bitch, you heard it hear first, recognize now or you're gonna need a nurse to stitch up the wounds from the k and the b redefine the word "originality", cant fuck with this shit, 1986
we was in the mix and zelda was the fuckin fix now we bringin this shit, full fuckin circle cant hate with this? go hang with steve erkle cause we regulatin hardcore, now you know whats in store beggin for a little more, glad i was in level 4 realize this, im creepin through the mist with the fuckin triforce, and im motherfuckin pissed now you realizin this beats hipnotizin, my skill keeps rising all this shit just ties in, step back i got the players guide fuckin game genie with the codes inside skill to save hyrule and the rest of mankind all this shit be stickin in your mind now you understand the controller in your hand you almost beat the game, but you aint the fuckin man so leave it up to me, and back the fuck off you think you're hardcore, but your skill be soft i piss on your cartridge, throw it in the trash take it to the pawn shop for some cash you dont belong on my NES i grab your controller to show im the best
