Last night I had a dream
Last night I had a dream
I was wandering in the sun
Near a place called home
Feeling alone

Red sky shimmering beans
I wish I'd see above
I was falling down the well
Without ringing the bell
No one to blame

Tell me what else
Tell me what else
Tell me what else is new
Everyone else
Everyone else
Everyone else is blue

Come to my world
Even if a house is not a home
Should have never let me sleep alone

Last night I had a dream
A warm unfloded dream
We were climbing up a tree
Near a place called we Hold on to me

Big dog starring at me
I dont know where to see
I've been shaking for a while
And the words just die
Wish I could fly

I'm so alone
I'm so alone
I'm so alone with you
No one to hurt
No one to hurt
No one to hurt but you

Don't be a fool
Even if a house is not a home
Hold me tight don't let me sing alone

Soft grass tangerine trees
Life's not just what it seems
You've been burnin' down the house
Like there's no way home
Who could have known

Last night I had a dream
Last night I had a dream
I was drifting in a pool
Like a fly in the moon
Nobody came

Tell me what else
Tell me what else
Everyone else
Everyone else

Come to my world
Should have never let me sleep alone
