I guess I had no reason, talking to you that way It's just so unexpected, seeing you here today Why now has it been long enough for all the hurt to fade?
Oh, how I'm waiting for the day

I guess I had no business, asking who you're hanging 'round
You like to keep your secrets, it's a lesson I've learnt now
But don't act like I feel nothing for you and everything's okay
Oh, how I'm waiting for the day

Seems that you've been kind enough to spare my innocence
And let me keep my illusions safe from harm To think when friends revealed the truth, I'd leap to your defense
Strange the way, the cruelest cuts have come

It's late, I guess I'll be going but don't expect me to wish you well
There's too much gone between us, whatever's left now I can't tell
But I know there'll be a time when I won't crumble like today
No, I won't feel like screaming out, should I see you glance my way?
Yes, I might find some bright new future that you can't steal away

Oh, how I'm waiting for the day
Oh, how I'm waiting for the day
Yeah, oh, yeah
Oh, how I'm waiting for the day, oh
Waiting for the day, day, day, day

Oh, you will see the day will come Ooh, I'm waiting for the day
Yeah, I'm waiting for the day
I'm gonna be alright, gonna be alright

When I see you and I don't care no more
When I see you and I don't care no more, oh
When I see you and I don't care no more
Oh, oh, oh
