Days are long, nights are hard
My faith is strong but my heart is scarred
Tired and torn, dreams have died
And on my bed, my Bible lies
Lord I cry...

Hold me
You hold me
When the world comes crumbling in
You prove once again 'til the end, the end
Hold me
When the night is cold and cruel
You hold me
When I think You're gone, it's then
You prove once again 'til the end
In Your hand You hold me

Lights are off, my soul is drained
But show Your face and my life is changed
Reason worn, when all's been tried
My greatest fear is I won't know why
Lord I cry

Hold me
When the night is cold and cruel
Jesus, hold me
When the world comes crumbling in
You prove once again 'til the end, the end

You made me so much stronger
You know I couldn't take it any longer
Sweep me up from where I fell
I was hurt You made me well
Gave me love no one could steal
Now I tell you how I feel

You hold me
Jesus, will You hold me
When the world comes crumbling in
You prove once again 'til the end, the end
Please hold me
When the night is cold and cruel

You hold me
When I think You're gone it's then
You prove once again 'til the end
In Your hand You hold me
