It's a hurried up life
But it's the life I choose
No use in asking me to slow down
'Cause I got nothing to lose

But time and time is all I've got
You know I was born standin' up
With a guitar in my hand
I'm not tryin' to come on like Hollywood
But Hollywood is what I am

When we come into a new town
Everybody's there
When we play our music
Hands are in the air

When the music's over
You wonder where we are
I'm standing in the silence
With my old guitar
Rock is my life and this is my song

It's a cryin' shame
That some of us have not survived
No use in askin' how it happened
But very few are left alive

I just wanna keep on makin' music
We gotta keep on keepin' on
You're only as good as your last record
I know that someday we'll be gone, gone

When we come into a new town
Everybody's there
When we play our music
Hands are in the air

When the music's over
You wonder where we are
I'm standing in the silence
With my old guitar
Rock is my life and this is my song

When we come into a new town, new town
Everybody's there
When we play our music
Candles light the air

When the music's over, over
You wonder where we are
I'm standing in the silence
With my old guitar, my only friend

Rock is my life and this is my song
And this is my song
Rock is my life and [Incomprehensible]

When we come into a new town, new town
Everybody's there
