I have been where silence dwell
Tried to keep you far away
I feel something's still around
It has been kept from us

All illusions are just fractions
Of the fears that they stole from your mind

I can touch what you can't reach
I cannot hold them back aahhh
All illusions seems so real
I can touch what you can't reach
I cannot hold them back aahhh
It's the outpost of my mind

When the darkness came you saw
Now i share what you believe
You are in my silent room
Now i understand it

All illusions were just fractions
Of the fears you carried all the way

Now you touch what i have reached
You cannot hold them back aahhh
All illusions seems so real
Now you touch what i have reached
You cannot hold them back aahhh
It's the outpost of our minds

I can touch what you can't reach
I cannot hold them back aahhh
All illusions seems so real
I can touch what you can't reach
I cannot hold them back aahhh
It's the outpost of my mind
