She's dreaming about me
She's sleeping so silently
When im dreaming about her
I sleep so undisturbed
When i regain consiousness
I relize who I miss
And now the nightmare begins
Ive lost my best friend

I was your Security
But now my insecure with me
I thought you wanted honesty
I gave you sincerity
I told you honestly

Id love you for eternity
But now all this reality
Has brought me to my destiny

The hardest thing ive ever had to do
Was give you a hug goodbye
The last words that you heard from me
Was have a good life

I would wait forever for you
I want want my heart back
If you dont love me anymore
