Modern man

modern man what have you done i know you are there i know you are waiting till im gone cuz i hear you breath i think i saw you make your move so lie down we're going to make this easy on you give a girl a little time to think give a girl a little bit to drink
give a girl a little bit to sink her teeth

Before we're only wasting time again but its not so kind it doesn't strike you like a pain full fist cuz i know you are there i know you are waiting for the same damn thing so lie down were going to make this easy on you give a girl a little time to think give a girl a little bit to drink

give a girl a little bit to sink her teeth nothing is ever going to change every one you know is turned xs

i'm so tired i'm so tired giving out and putting in i'm so tired i'm so tired of the same thing the same thing

i'm so tired lie down were going to make this easy on you lie down were going to make this easy on you give a girl a little time to think give a girl a little to drink

give a girl a little to drink give a girl a little to sink her teeth
