I know you're only here for a little while back against the wall only showing me your profile still i can read your thoughts so clear and now i see every answer and it's in my hands and the meteor were swirlin outside my head i wont let it go like everyone goes you want to run but you see me see you want to go but you don't know where to take my hand you'll be safe here inside these arms do do do do do do do do do do xs 3

Cuz nothing changes when you call my name it hurts and every move that you make is liftin bad word i only wanted a fair chance to be the one you want to run but you see me see you

take my hand you'll be safe here inside these arm you want to run but you see me see you you want to go but you don't know where to

xs 3

take my hand you'll be safe here inside these arms
