Her names Dorothy Stratton there she goes again
A young milk bar girl, a life of innocence
A hustler strolls up into the bar and catches her eye
He said girl you've got potential yeah, and I'll change
your life
He took her hand with the promise of good things to come
It never worked out anyway cause now she's gone
He brought her gifts and pampered her when she was ill
Now she's in every centre fold around the world

Chorus:

So beautiful, my centre fold girl (the hidden tears that shed from your blue eyes)
So beautiful, posing for the world (the trusted hand that gave and took your life)

Dorothy Stratton the beautiful blonde bombshell

Ironically she had looks that could kill Dorothy Stratton there she goes again (there she goes again)
A young milk bar girl, a life of innocence
A hustler strolls up into the bar and catches her eye
your life

Chorus:

Dorothy, So beautiful
So beautiful my centre fold girl (the hidden tears that shed from your blue eyes)
So beautiful posing for the world (the trusted hand that gave and took your life)
Dorothy Stratton you look so good on my wall
Dorothy Stratton you look so good on my wall
You look so good on my wall....
