Off you go then
Off you go
I'll stay instead
Out of black and back into the red
Found in you
Bound in you
All that I wanted to be
Go in anger and pull out what you need
I know why
Fury's so hard to tame
I quit lying
I brought you here to blame
Trying to break through
All in a day
I know why
We dared to share but now
We're going away
Don't look back
Don't you look back
There's nothing here for you
Watch me patient
Watch me disappear
Fought for you
Thought for you
All that I wanted to be
Go in wisdom and read out
What you read
Chorus
We dared to share it's good
To care and though we're scared
We're better for going Away...
