fuel for a city
don't you look pretty

sometimes you smile and you're not sure quite why we're all kind of jaded but you have to be patient

somewhere standing into the sea
I am finding me
somewhere standing into the sea
I am finding me

angels walking
sometimes talking

sometimes you smile and you're not sure quite why

I am finding me
somewhere standing into the sea
I am finding me

don't take my time

I am finding me
oh
somewhere standing into the sea
I am finding me
oh
