Stagnant waters
Fill my mind
With memories
Another view
Upon a dark uncaring time
Where the morning sun
Won't rise a new

Morning sun will soon awake
Shinning hope and past away
New born hope will let arise
Deepest feelings flowing from my heart

Still I am trapped inside my mind
While new hope becomes my life
And turned those stagnant waters that
Filled my mind into a shine new start.

Stagnant waters fill my mind...
New born hope will let arises
Still I am trapped inside my minds

Turn those stagnant waters that
Filled my mind into a shine new start.
