A heart is reaching out
It's finding there's no need to carry wrong
A love is biding time it takes to heal to move along

I like the way that it feels whenever you're around
You've opened up a world of joy that's new and free
And then I start to see that I was mistaken
'Cause your love has finally opened up my eyes

CHORUS

I believe that I am falling for you
One step closer to the real life
Outside of all the madness
This feeling I don't know why I never knew before
Here you've been waiting for me
I never noticed you
Cause too much fire was in my life that I could not see through

Lie awake, lie awake inside your arms
I'll never wonder how it feels to be alone
You see my heart is on my sleeve
'Cause I was mistaken, and your love has finally opened up my eyes

CHORUS

I believe that I am falling for you
One step closer to the real life
Outside of all the madness
This feeling I don't know why I never knew before

And I believe that you could be the one
My one and only in this new life
Far away from all the sadness
Cause you have turned out to be something real to me

INSTRUMENTAL BRIDGE
