They're ringing in my head,
The last words you said.
There's nothing left to say,
Goodbye my love.
My world is crashing down,
You're not around.
Wipe the tears from your eyes,
Goodbye my love.

What you mean to me,
There's no words that can express my emptiness.
What you did to me,
There's no words that can express my pain.

Another night alone, your picture in my head.
Another day I'll wake up to an empty bed.
I'm dying inside, my lovely.
There's no one but you.
You left me so alone, but I'm trying so hard.
Without you in my life, I can't do anything at all.

They're ringing in my head,
The last words you said.
There's nothing left to say,
Goodbye my love.
My world is crashing down,
You're not around.
Wipe the tears from your eyes,
Goodbye my love.
