Here I am again, waiting for you tell me how you've been It's been so long since I have seen you show your face Said you've been around this place please tell me what went wrong

I don't think you've had enough, I won't let you just hold on.

Breakdown, you know everything is going wrong
Breakdown, things I've kept in side me for so Long cause everything is getting clearing and I'm better off breakdown you know I can; t stop it now

Now it's time you know feeling like I've got no where to go show me somthing I can do to be with you somthing I could try that new just give me anything.

I don't think you've had enough, I won't let you just hold
on.

Breakdown, you know everything is going wrong
Breakdown, things I've kept inside me for so Long cause everything is getting clearing and I'm
better off breakdown you know I can't stop it now

Lets go tonight charge this city Stare towards the light the sun is setting much to fast wondering how long that we can last before it fades away

Breakdown, you know everything is going wrong
Breakdown, things I've kept in side me for so Long cause everything is getting clearing and I'm
better off breakdown you know I can't stop it now
