I want to know how you act when I'm not around
I want to know what you say and what you're all about
Do you cringe or smile, at the thought of me?
Are you gonna be mine?
Don't worry, I can wait.
I would walk for miles, just to be with you.
Just to see you smile.
I swear to god it's true.
Do you feel the same way when you think of me?
Or is all this a waste (all these months and days)?

I'm losing my mind, you're in my head all the time
I'm losing my mind and you're just fine

Please tell me now, I'm breaking down

I've got you stuck in my head with no escape
Please help me out, I'm breaking down
I've got you stuck in my head with no escape

Now I know how you act when I'm not around
Now I know what you say, but not what you're all about
Now I know how you look when you think of me
Is all this time just wasted, or was it meant to be?
I would walk for miles, just to be with you
Just to see you smile
I swear to God it's true
Do you feel the same way when you think of me?
Or is all this a waste (all these months and days)?
