Sit back and listen to me
Cause baby that's just the way it'll be
And you're alone again
Time's changed but you're still the same
While everything else is rearranged
I hate how long it's been

So let's just be honest

Here's how it goes
Tell me the things I need to know
Come clean to me
Here's how it goes
Tell me the things I need to know

Confessions Breathe

I saw from the look in your eyes
The little bit of honesty that you left inside
And I'm not finished yet
These things that you tried to hide
All your backstabbing and all of your lies
The things that you regret

Come clean to me
Confessions breathe
Come clean to me
Confessions breathe
