Falling, falling, falling apart
Falling in pieces
Like my lonely heart

Sweet romance
Come back to stay
Why must our love be
An idol of clay

I cry, I try
To always be faithful and true
But now, somehow
I'm just like a stranger to you

Falling, falling, falling apart
Your cold indifference
Is breaking my heart

Sweet romance
Come back to stay
Don't change our love to
An idol of clay

Falling, falling, falling apart
Your cold indifference
Is breaking my heart

Sweet romance
Come back to stay
Don't change our love to
An idol of clay
