It's just another true love gone
A love I used to call my own
But now my lover, he has gone
Come on home

A love I thought I'd never lose
A love I thought would be true
Every night I kneel and pray
Come on home

Yes, I'm yearning
Yes, I'm yearning
Though the boy that I love
He's gone

Please come back
Oh, yes, come home
Where you belong

It's just another true love gone
A love I used to call my own
But now my lover, he has gone
Come on home

A love I thought I'd never lose
A love I thought would be true
Every night I kneel and pray
Come on home

It's just another true love gone
A love I used to call my own
But now my lover, he has gone
Come on home, come on home
