Baby, baby, baby

Your hand is like a torch
Each time you touch me
And that look in, in your eyes
It just tears me apart

But please don't open
The door to Heaven
If I can't, if I can't come in

Oh, don't touch me
If you don't love me
Don't do it, sweetheart

Don't give me something
That you might soon
Soon take away, baby
To have you and then lose you
That wouldn't be smart on my part

Oh, baby, baby
Don't open the door to Heaven
If you won't, if you won't let me in
And please don't touch me
Unless you love me, sweetheart

Oh, please don't touch me
Unless you love me
Don't do it, sweetheart
