Today I started loving you
All over again, yes, I did

I'm right back
Where I started from
Where I've always been

I got over you
Just long enough to
Let my broken heart mend

Then today
I started loving you
All over again
(Yes, I did)

What a fool I was
To think I'd get by
With only these few million
Tears that I'll have to cry

I should have known
That the worst was yet to come
And that crying time for me
Had just begun

Because today
I started loving you again
I'm right back
Where I started from
Where I've always been

I got over you
Just long enough to
Let my broken heart mend

Then today
I started loving you again
(Yes, I did)

I got over you
Just long enough to

Let this broken heart
Of mine mend

Hey, then today
I started loving you
All over again
(Yes, I did)

I just can't stop
Loving you, baby
