While slipping slowly down
I think unto myself,
Where could this be leading (where could this go)
Our voices, are singing,
This new song and creating forever.
It's something I just can't control,
So I scream it at you.
It's everything I want and need
And giving back too.
Forgetting truth and promises,
And almost giving in.
Butterfly's collapse tonight,
While dying deep within you,
Butterfly's collapse,
While dying deep within you,
Butterfly's collapse.
It's something that you can't control
When I'm screaming at you,
It's everything you want and need
And giving back too.
