So we have left this room. only wanting more from, you and what I am giving up. so take this bottle down, and remember I can see right through you. yeah. so this is starting to deform. it comes right back into your face.
so this is starting to deform. it feels so fucking wrong.
so put these lips to this bottle. and taste my kiss from on this bottle. feels so awkward. just like the first time. and now you've lost the words. (I drink to forget) (I drink to forgive) I laugh to please you. still I am empty (I drink to forget this moment) I can see it all.
