Unfortunate, ambiguous events that rake your brain,
Who's to say that's wrong?
(Who's to say that's wrong?)
Well not me because I'm hanging on by a thread,
I'm waiting for you,
Waiting for the world ahead.

Because I feel lost, but I feel strong.
(Enough to carry on)
Because I feel loss but keep it on.
Now is the time for me to grasp onto the light.
Because I feel lost, but I feel strong.

Why come at me with that fire burning in your eyes?
Can you see through my lies tonight?
(see through my lies tonight?)
No you don't, you don't know my faith in you,
So come back at me, come back at me tonight.

Because I feel lost, but I feel strong.
(Enough to carry on)
Because I feel loss but keep it on.
Now is the time for me to grasp onto the light.
Because I feel lost, but I feel strong.

(Keep the strength in you, in you) 2x
Because I feel lost but I feel strong.
Because I feel lost but carry on.
Because I feel lost but I feel strong.
(Enough to carry on)
Because I feel loss but keep it on.

Now is the time for me to grasp onto the light.
Because I feel loss but I feel strong.
(I feel lost, I feel strong)
