Find yourself before you blame me
I know my faults You've forced me to see
The Best of friends, The Best of Friends,
Those Words you Say burn holes
Through Confidence
Find yourself before you sever the ties
(Don't Sever the Ties, Sever the Ties)
This camouflage is visible to the eyes
You know why you say those words
I don't know why you say those things
The best of friends, the worst of words
Find yourself before you blame me
I know my faults you've forced me to see
The Best of friends, The Best of Friends,
Those Words you Say burn holes
Through Confidence
Find yourself before you sever the ties
(Don't Sever the Ties, Sever the Ties)
This camouflage is visible to the eyes
So, See it? See it
So, This visible camouflage is visible to the eyes
So, Fall
I wanna fall in front of you to show i Tried
I tried to rise, I lied to your surprise
I tried to rise, I lied to your surprise
I tried to Rise, I lied
Find yourself before you blame me
I know my faults You've forced me to see
The Best of friends, The Best of Friends,
Those Words you Say burn holes
Through Confidence
Find yourself before you sever the ties
(Don't Sever the Ties, Sever the Ties)
This camouflage is visible to the eyes
Visible to the eyes
