don't die i'm coming for you.
it's just a matter of time.
don't walk closer it's not a good light.
wrap your arms around your eyes and just sit tight.
i'm a little weary.
with the direction your steering.
maybe you should move over.
let me take the wheel.
common sense's not so common these days.
and i myself am starting to feel.
a bit less comfortable.
not so sensible.
more like a not so meant to be.
cause that just makes more sense to me.
cause i just can't relate.
no i just can't relate.
i'm having second thoughts.
about the car i bought.
it's not really that useful.
and it never takes me anywhere.
i'm always nervous.
about the things that have no purpose.
i'm so sick of all the people.
tired of what they say and how they have to stare.
i'm counting backwards.
with hopes that i might ask her.
about the time i caught her eye, how she felt and what
it meant to me.
she'll say she saw the future.
made a note, kept it close about.
how we're not so meant to be.
it's just not meant be.
the way the world works.
isn't so great.
but of course has it's perks.
the trees they're making faces.
i'm naming people and places.
but not the few left off the list.
it's not too on key.
but they caught the other side of me.

with a routine like that.
of course theyll remain nameless.
until i say otherwise.
