well the lights were on.
and we were clapping our hands.
to the songs we had never heard before.
you were late as usual.
and i was little worried about calming the storm.
we were tongue tied but didn't mind.
waking up late, waking up to the sunset singing sweet songs on the east coast.
so give it up love, just for luck one more time.
i couldn't say it enough if i tried.
but i know this is it, this is what we've been waiting for.
so the, day was gone.
and we were doing our best to remember.
the words to our favorite soco song.
the lights were dimmed just a little bit.
but your eyes were closed so you'll never know.
what it was like when the moonlight died.
