I know he's driving a fancy car
When you're with him
You're feeling like a star
But when I'm home alone I think only of you
So what do you know
How does it go

So how can he buy a love that's not for sale
If you two were so in love I couldn't tell, baby Girl, but when I'm home alone I hear your heart, it spells
You gotta know
And how does it go

Who do you love
Who do you love
Girl I know that you are torn between what was and what could be
I wanna know, gotta know, wanna know, gotta know
Who do you love
Who do you love
Oh yeah

So let's take some time out to find a way
Cuz there are just so many things I need to say (So many things I need to say)
Cause when the lights are down and love is in the air
And I need to know
Do you really care
(Do you really care baby)

Who do you love (tell me who do you love)
Who do you love
Girl I know that you are torn between what was and
what could be
I wanna know, gotta know, wanna know, gotta know
Who do you love (oh yeah)
Who do you love
Oh yeah

Girl I find just I can't leave you alone

(Ain't nobody's gonna tell me I'm wrong)
I promise I will make it back home
And if you're ever in need
Put your full trust in me
And I will never leave you at home

Who do you love (tell me who, yeah)
Who do you love (I need to know baby)
Girl I know that you are torn between what was and
what could be
I wanna know, gotta know, wanna know, gotta know
Who do you love
Who do you love

Who do you love
