...WAY

(that's Something)

I think I'd never come today

(The question must be simple)

Why can't you admit you're a man?

Kneel down in front of me and praise

My life (oh me)

Now I feel this form it comes alive

I want to feel the way I wanted to feel

Like I feel exactly today

I want to feed on ways gods have degraded on

Race and acceptance is me

Where am I?

Am I still home?

The answer must be simple

I remember everything was... once.

It is the only thing I can remember

That by itself must mean to me

I could save myself later on

Now feel this form it comes alive

...Its me -

Time for reason

My spinal chord aches

For now I'm stable

And some raindrops hit a silent lake

Bless my soul it's done for today,

And then start vanishing

Unless you've got

Something else to say

Say to me,

Saved for me,

Look for me

After me,

Now that I'm gone you would

Still be there making me

Especially in theses times

To be free is to adore

And maybe I don't know who you are but at least I'm not

SICK ANYMORE

Time for me
