Sometimes the everyday things
Can really get you down
Yes, I know and sometimes you seem
To carry problems when I'm not around
And they grow, still I

I could never leave you lonely
You know that would never do
Sure as the sun will rise and the moon will shine
My love's the same for you

Feelings change like rain to snow
But the love inside will never go
I tell ya that whatever comes
I'll promise you forever, I'll promise you forever

Some hearts blow in the wind like falling leaves
In every changing season, easy to offend
Don't you ever think that's my intention
We're one person, you're my friend

I could never leave you lonely
You know that would never do
Sure as the sun will rise and the moon will shine
My love's the same for you

Whenever you think of me
Don't you worry 'bout a thing
Whenever I think of you
You're my everything

Whenever we think of each other
It's more than emotion
I may not be there but I still care
Remember I'm talking forever
