People say that together we were both sides of the same coin
That we would shine like Venus in a clear night sky We thought our love could overcome the circumstances
But my ambition wouldn't allow for compromise

I could see in the distance all the dreams that were clear to me
Every choice that I had to make left you on your own Somehow the road we started down had split on there Too late to realise how far apart we'd grown.
How I wish I, wish I'd done a little bit more
