Never thought I'd see the day
When somebody got inside and caught my heart this way
Didn't fit in with my masterplan
And I can't believe that this is where I am
Oh maybe I was living life just fine
Friends and family would always occupy my time
And suddenly out of the blue...
There was You.

No one in this world can take the place of you
And that's 100% you got me
100% you got me
Oh baby, baby,
I was made to fill that empty space in you
And that's 100% you got me
100 you got me

Others in my past have tried for commitment
But they always found themselves denied
Love and I were incompatible
But now what you've done to me is magical
Oh baby I was so afraid of hurt
I did everything to put myself on full alert
But you broke those barriers of pain
I breathe again.

No one in this world can take the place of you
And that's 100% you got me
100% you got me

Oh baby, baby,
I was made to fill that empty space in you
And that's 100% you got me
100 you got me

Love surely hit the spot
And didn't wait to see if I was ready or not
It opened up a world I thought I'd never live in
You and I, a new beginning
How could I ever let you go?
I'm wishing on a future I could never have known

You and I

No one in this world can take the place of you
And that's 100% you got me
100% you got me
Oh baby, baby,
I was made to fill that empty space in you
And that's 100% you got me
100% you got me
