Here it is Good morning world
Hello

Starting at the beginning in a history of pain
It's hard to realise a dream I've fantasised for so long
Suddenly my position turns around within a day
A transformation came
Born with freedom's name

This brave new world I live in seems a little easier to face
This deep blue sea I swim in bears me up enough so I can float away

Hey, hello, good-morning world
Yesterday's another girl
Lovin' every minute of my life, my life
Morning came to right the wrong
Yesterday's another song
Lovin' every minute of my life, my life

Got a whole new religion
I got a change of scenery
And yet in different ways nothing ceases to amaze me
I'm a whole new woman - in a different kinda way
Yet I remain unfazed, my mind and body still unswayed
This brave new world I live in never seems to hurt me
anymore
This deep blue sea I swim always seems to bring me to a safer shore

Hey, hello, good-morning world
Yesterday's another girl
Lovin' every minute of my life, my life
Morning came to right the wrong
Yesterday's another song
Lovin' every minute of my life, my life

Hello
Good-morning
How are you?

(Said I'm alright yeah)
Fine
So fine

Hello
Good-morning (morning to you)

How are you?
(I'm alright I'm alright)
Fine
So fine

Hello
Good-morning
How are you doing?
(how am I? I'm doing...)
Fine
(so fine)
So fine

Hello (good morning)
Good-morning
How are you doing?
(how am I doing?
Fine
(so fine)
So fine

This brave new world I live in never seems to hurt me
anymore
This deep blue sea I swim always seems to bring me to
a safer shore

Hey, hello, good-morning world (hello)
Yesterday's another girl
Lovin' every minute of my life, my life (said I love you, said I love you)
Morning came to right the wrong
Yesterday's another song
Lovin' every minute of my life, my life

Hey, hello, good-morning world (hello)
Yesterday's another girl
Lovin' every minute of my life, my life (I love my life and I love it all, every minute, every hour, every second)
Morning came to right the wrong
Yesterday's another song (someone else's girl) Lovin' every minute of my life, my life (and I love it, and I love you)

Hey, hello, good-morning world (hello)
Yesterday's another girl
Lovin' every minute of my life, my life (and it's a new life, and it's a new start)
