This is for them 20 something's
Time really moves fast you were just 16
This is for the 30 something's
That didn't turn out exactly how your mum and dad wanted you to be
This is for them 40 something's
Well raise up your glass and laugh like a motherfucker
This is for them 50 something's
Hell you're half way there, baby, take it to the head

Mom and dad tried to hide the world
Except the world is just too big for a little girl
Eyes wide open, can't you see
I had my first kiss by the age of thirteen

Mom and dad tried to hide the boys
I swear that just made me want it more
At fourteen they asked me what I wanna be
I said baby, 21, so I can get a drink

I'm not a teacher, baby, but I can teach you something
Not a preacher but we can pray if you want
Ain't a doctor but I can make you feel better but I'm great and right in physical love letters

I'm a freak all day, all night
I'm to fly boy, out of sight
And I'm crazy all day, all night
Who needs a degree when you're schoolin' life

Schoolin' life
Schoolin' life

This is for ther pretty something's
Livin' in the fast lane, see you when you crash...
This is for them sexy something's
That body ain't always gon get you out of everything
This is for them middle something's
Stop living in regret, baby, it's not over yet

And this is for them ... something's
.. baby, put me on your side

I'm not a teacher, baby, but I can teach you something
Not a preacher but we can pray if you want
Ain't a doctor but I can make you feel better
but I'm great and right in physical love letters

I'm a freak all day, all night
I'm to(?) fly boy, out of sight
And I'm crazy all day, all night
Who needs a degree when you're schoolin' life

Schoolin' life
Schoolin' life

Do you know what it costs to be the boss
One day you'll run the town
So now make the life that you decide
Baby... wash this sucker down

I'm not a teacher, baby, but I can teach you something
Not a preacher but we can pray if you want
Ain't a doctor but I can make you feel better
but I'm great and right in physical love letters

I'm a freak all day, all night
I'm to fly boy, out of sight
And I'm crazy all day, all night
Who needs a degree when you're schoolin' life

Who needs a degree when you're schoolin' life
Who needs a degree when you're schoolin' life

There's not a real way to live
Just remember stay with this
Don't start running, I'm just finished
It's up to you, the rest isn't written
