"Rise Up"

I'm the matriarch in your land
When you need to, take my hand
Come into my arms
I'll keep you safe from harm
I'll keep your precious heart
Some people try to drag you down
They can't fool me
Stand and be proud
You're a warrior
You're my warrior
Be who you are
Be who you are
Know that life holds more
Than what you see
Rise up little man, I will
(Rise up little man)

Fight for you and me
Look into my eyes and believe
Little one we will fight, we will fight
Little woman we will fight
We will rise
I see you in me
Take my hand and believe
We will stand, we will fight, we will fight
We will stand and together we will rise

They'll burn you at the stake if you
Don't act like they want you too
But baby be yourself
Do good and help the world
Be who you are
Be who you are
Know that life holds more
Than what you see
Rise up little man, I will
(Rise up little man)

Fight for you and me
Look into my eyes and believe
Little one we will fight, we will fight

Little woman we will fight
We will rise
I see you in me
Take my hand and believe
We will stand, we will fight, we will fight
We will stand and together we will rise

Rise up, rise up little man
Don't be scared I'm holding your hand
Know that life holds more than
What we see and what we can't
Rise up, rise up little woman
Don't be afraid to risk it all
I will (I will)

Fight for you and me
Look into my eyes and believe
Little one we will fight, we will fight
Little woman we will fight
We will rise
I see you in me
Take my hand and believe
We will stand, we will fight, we will fight
We will stand and together we will rise
