Here We Are..

Suddenly
Your eye shone with unshed tears
I feel my heart breaking
So much true feelings
You pretend not to see
Placing such distance between you and me

I don't want to wait for you all by myself
Such uncertainty in the lesson on love

Here we are, It's not a perfect world
Say goodbye to love
Wanting to leave this place, far away
Here we are, It's not a perfect world
Be honest about the scars
And it'll not hurt so deeply
Even if I don't say it
You'll probably know
The reason I left
To let you learn to be brave without me
And learn to be strong

I don't want to wait for you all by myself
Such uncertainty in the lesson on love

Here we are, It's not a perfect world
Say goodbye to love
Wanting to leave this place, far away
Here we are, It's not a perfect world
Be honest about the scars
And it'll not hurt so deeply
