You've got speed
I need soul
It's like I'm back in that one horse city
I need five
But get lies
I just know I don't wanna feel this shitty
I know that I'm sick of being your slave

I only want an eightball darling now
I only want a phonecall Charlie now
Hold'em down, Charlie now
Get what you can get
And now you've made it
Hold'em down, Charlie now

I need size
No vice
I see no reason why you make me stop
I want up
And you're down
I need the power and the pressure drop
I know that you are sick of hearin' me rave

I only want an ounce of party now
I only wanna bounce whit Charlie know
Hold'em down, Charlie now
Get what you can get
And now you've made it
Hold'em down, Charlie now
