So I tried to find out who I am
It's not easy when you don't know your name
So he moved downtown and he got himself some friends
It's so easy when no one understands
So listen good
Get down instead of shooting up
? I.Q. barbecue
Doing all the things we do
Now, rock and roll it don't stop
Is it still alright to smile
A generation problem child
It sits on top of me and you
? man ain't got nothing else to do
I drink and spit and smoke and shit on you
I try to succeed in a world where the generation's about to break down
So, baby, listen good
Get down instead of shooting up
? I.Q. barbecue
Doing all the things we do
Now, rock and roll it don't stop
Is it still alright to smile
A generation problem child
Do you know how the story goes
When the world is making fun of jokes
Do you know how the story goes tonight
Well, I said, do you really know what it takes
And the lonely lover's heart will break
'Cause I know how the story goes alright
Is it still alright to smile
A egeneration problem child
