I've been too crazy I don't feel that good
Just breaking things around the neighbourhood
Some people say you're walking on really thin ice
But I don't care cause I ain't that nice
Throw away the garbage and clean up my act
Every inch is fucked that's a matter of fact
Everybody think that you will leave her and betray
So what's the point of splashing you can go the whole way

How could I be so wrong
How could I be so damn wrong
Every minute I'm in it
Always been a bit too strong
How could I be so wrong

Tried too pay my shrink with another drink
Ice-cubes bigger than a hockey-rink
Every now and then we get together and there's peace
The smaller currency's the more we're hurting these Dropped out of school I don't wanna stay
Everyday I dreamt about the holiday
I'm gonna go now and leave it all
No arms no legs no cookies can someone please catch my fall

How could I be so wrong
How could I be so damn wrong
Every minute I'm in it
Always been a bit too strong x2

I'm tired of bein' an unemployed millionaire
I'm sick of bein' a Swedish tourist-souvenir
I'm sick of this
I'm bored with that I'm happy with
Nah I won't tell you that
Do live the life
Do pay the price
Do not follow my advice

How could I be so wrong

How could I be so damn wrong
Every minute I'm in it
Always been a bit too strong x3
