Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some

Friends always call you
And lie on the phone
Like they think that you're tolerant too

But if they could see
What is goin' to be
And that you're actually left all alone

Well, I'm trying to prove
What I do's not for you
It's for me

Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends, hey

Well, everything changes
It's a part of the plan
Planning them out of my life
And all I can do
When I'm thinkin' 'bout you
I just switched to channel two

Well, I'm trying to prove
What I do's not for you
It's for me

Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends, hey
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah

I'm trying to prove
What I do's not for you
It's for me

Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some
Too tough to make some friends

Too tough to make some friends
Too tough to make some friends
Hey, hey
