These streets are crumbling beneath our feet.
And this is going to hurt.
You said we had it all but we,
We just haven't learned.

So take the past,
So burn it all,
So make it look
Like it's all my fault.

If this is our, only way out,
Would you help me make it count?
Make it count!

Don't try to hold it back
Or make it all fall apart.

This was way to over
Before it even got to start

So what?
We live and learn,
If we could just take this town and...

Let it burn!
