

Beyond Dawn "Righteous Underground"

Visit "Righteous Underground" on MotoLyrics.com

I have got an idle little mind and a grateful attitude Waiting patiently inside a subway on the move
Avoiding the eyes
I'm humming a song to the crippled among the healthy ones.

I step outside in the carbon dioxide like drifting off to sleep
Shameful, uneasy and delicate, apparently not too bright or deep

I know I can do whatever I want to how ever cruel
What may seem like greed has nearly taken over me
Here I come like a sleepwalker down the street
I clear my throat position my mouth
I wanna kiss life...
In the house speakers beating my legs and arms around
Intoxication and free will in the righteous underground

Pleasure seekin' ignorance is not a subculture
I can't free my mind
I don't know what made me feel this way
Whatever you're thinking of it's not like I'm afraid

Behaving so good I am bound to get in trouble
With the truth, what can I say?
A seasickness makes me jump conclusions every single day
And I'm watching myself
Growing really funny on behalf of everybody else

Visit Beyond Dawn page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.