The drugs were expensive I'll stay behind they do not disappoint as I Expected I don't need anything more. Simple amusement somewhere beside the Point where the suns coming up and I feel good now I don't.

Pull up your defensive shield and walk around with me,
meet the environment

With silly sounds in our ears. It's hilarious when the people won't buy it I Don't know about you.
I can control my excitement, don't say you're turning in.
hold on to the Table and we'll try again...
