Because we setting up the world for a great recession,
And no bodies gonna stop it with spiritual depression,
IDF forces marching into the Gaza Strip,
Demolishing Palestinian homes for some Zionist shit,
Perfecting religious texts from 2000 years ago,
You're letting god decide our future how far will you go?
You're thought your actions were so god damn benevolent,
So why's your fascist rhetoric so prevalent,

Hezbollah and Al Qaeda, scapegoats for America,
Canada, Britannica, profit from Arabia,
If you see this shit then you might feel sick,
Our leaders are all fucking hypocrites,
Wonder what it's like to have to hide from the gun,
Wonder what it's like to have to live life on the run,
From checkpoint to checkpoint,
Occupying forces done,
Three hours to a hospital when it should have been just one

A war to uphold a system,
A war to preserve a lie,
A war that serves nothing but increases national pride,
War mongers talk the talk,
But will they ever walk the walk,
Mass media flock and resistance is mocked
