You don't even know me
You only see what you want us to be
Your lack of identity you seek to find
Any way to twist our fuckin' minds

Beyond possession, possessed
Beyond possession, possessed
Beyond possession, possessed
Beyond possession, possessed

As time goes by you no longer see the truth
Mistaken identity has stolen your youth
Fairy tale lies surround you like a wall
Misguided views inevitable downfall

Beyond possession, possessed
Beyond possession, possessed
Beyond possession, possessed
Beyond possession, possessed
