Bombs are dropped when diplomacy fails,
Soon the train of peace derails,
Hidden messages in this song,
Pledge defiance and right the wrongs,

Don't be a slave to the masters fucking hands,
Don't be a cog in their systematic profit plans,

Take my hand I'll take you there,
To the Promised land I swear,
Time to defeat yer ignorance,
That's the taste of resistance,

I won't fight your mother fucking war,
I'm not some economic fucking profit whore,

Why don't you show me all yer proof so you can justify your crimes,
Your oppression an destruction is going overboard,
Every single checkpoint that we go,
We've got to stop this shit before it's getting worse,
The truth we're all gonna die,

World war 3 we've seen before but now I'm scared of world war 4,
They're enlisting in their schools I won't be their fucking whore,
Don't take all their shit, yer brains not repairable.
But every single day I'm feeling like I'm gonna die,
We gotta stop this shit before it's getting any worse,
You know the truth it's all just a lie!
